

Phyllis Ann (DeJonge) Aurich

On March 7, 2023 the Literacy Legacy Fund of Michigan family lost one of it's beloved board members. For more than eight years, Phyllis worked tirelessly to fulfill the mission of the organization to support a literate Michigan citizenry of all ages. As a valued leader, literacy advocate, family member, and friend, she will be dearly missed.

Funeral services were held at Throop Funeral Home, Inc. in the Coopersville, MI area Monday, March 12, 2023. To read her memorial announcement please visit her memorial page: <https://www.throopfh.com/obituary/Phyllis-Aurich>

A gathering of friends, colleges & family to honor Phyllis was held in May in Marquette, MI

Friends of LLF Michigan interested in honoring her memory are welcome to make a donation to the nonprofit. To make a memorial contribution, please visit: <https://literacylegacyfund.org/how-you-can-help-2/>
