Example:

My name is: Aiden and I am 12 years old. For my Giving Tuesday Generosity Project: I made an apple pie and gave it to our Fire Department. My uncle is a volunteer fireman and he loves apple pie. Everybody liked it! And, it was fun!

An activity for all ages. Let's celebrate acts of generosity!

Larissa
I collected toys
to give to the E.R. so kids
would feel better

Mrs. Brooks
For my generosity project,
I worked with my ladies
group to collect coats, hats,
mittens and scarves for the nursing home. Now they can get some fresh air!

Inspire the World Rural Michigan Libraries Generosity Project Materials

Instructions:

Generosity is always in season! There are many fun activities you can do throughout the year to inspire library visitors to read this book and participate in acts of generosity, recycling, or other activities that make a difference.

We encourage you to:

- Display the book and invite library visitors to read.
- Post the poster along with the book and invite participants to engage in acts of generosity any time during the year.
- Share the books and posters online or at the library and invite people to celebrate a special event such as:
 - World Environment Day - June 5th
 - National Writing Day - June 25th (Become an author like Sammie!)
 - National CleanUp Month - September
 - National CleanUp Day - September 20th
 - Make a Difference Day - October 25th
 - America Recycles Day - November 15th
 - GivingTuesday 2025 - December 2nd

We hope you enjoy the book and share it with your library visitors. If you would like to customize materials or have questions, please email hpicotte@outlook.com.

Thank you for making a difference in rural communities!
